Escape to the BEACH

Whether you're seeking a beach wedding or simply escaping to the gentle shores for your honeymoon, there are plenty of places both here in the UK and around the world. There's nothing better than combining your wedding day with your honeymoon and inviting a select number of guests to join you on your once in a lifetime adventure.

Our Editor was in the Caribbean last year and witnessed a sunset wedding over the water, in her words it was one of the most magical things she has seen, celebrating afterwards with cocktails and an intimate dinner on the beach followed by an exclusive party with private DJ and entertainment.

We have rounded up some of our favourite honeymoon destinations located on the beach. Many of these also offer beach weddings, allowing you to say "I do" with the stunning backdrop.

Petit St Vincent

Caribbean

If you're looking to escape from the modern world and reconnect with nature during your honeymoon, stay at one of the world's most enchanting private hideaways. Petit St. Vincent is a 115-acre volcanic island fringed with pristine beaches and surrounded by turquoise ocean offering an 'unplugged' Caribbean vibe and ultimate barefoot luxury.

There are just 22 spacious cottages and villas scattered in the lush forest and on the cliff tops, with incredible views across the island. All cottages are purposely free of telephones, wireless connections and televisions, allowing you the chance to completely detach from the common tech-heavy distractions of everyday modern life, freeing them to focus on the natural beauty and tranquillity of the island.

During your stay, you can arrange many exciting activities such as chartering the traditional sailing sloop for a bespoke experience out on the water with island hopping, snorkelling and champagne on the deck. For a relaxing afternoon, rejuvenate with a couple's massage treatment in the hillside spa followed by a romantic private picnic in the sand dunes.
