

The Telegraph

Beyond the beach: 10 Caribbean adventures for restless travellers

Sailing is a different way to experience the island CREDIT: GETTY

Follow

By Nick Trend

11 NOVEMBER 2019 • 9:45AM

Looking to do more than laze on the sands? Here are ten active takes on the Caribbean

Petit St.Vincent
PRIVATE ISLAND

The Telegraph Online

Date: 11.11.2019

MUB: 24.9 Million

AVE: £15,000

The Telegraph

Luxury castaway

With high-end levels of service and a peaceful, low-key atmosphere, Petit St Vincent is a private 115-acre resort island in the south of the Grenadine archipelago with a collection of 22 one or two-bedroom cottages which overlook pristine beaches. There are two restaurants and a Balinese-inspired spa, and onsite activities include yoga, island walks, diving, picnic excursions to nearby sandy atolls and snorkelling around the five uninhabited islands of Tobago Cays Marine Park.

Petit St Vincent from £4,429 for seven nights including flights, transfers and all meals. Caribtours (caribtours.co.uk).